

Sail Caledonia 2020

JOINING INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

Welcome to Sail Caledonia 2020. We are glad you are able to join us and hope that this will be an enjoyable and memorable week for all.

Below are listed the things you need to know prior to arriving with us – if we have forgotten anything, do not hesitate to ask!

JOINING THE EVENT

We will assemble and launch boats at Lochaber Yacht Club in Fort William on Saturday 23rd May 2020. The yacht club is located just to the south of Fort William on the A82. Directions are attached.

We ask that you arrive at the club as soon as possible after 10:00 hrs, and in any event no later than 14.00 hours. It would be helpful if you could advise us in advance of when you expect to arrive. We have at least 14 boats to get on the water by 15:00 so this will take some time and won't go well if everyone arrives at 14:00!

When you arrive, we will ask you to complete the registration process (including signing our safety disclaimer form and exhibiting a copy of your insurance policy). Remember – no insurance no Sail Caledonia! We will issue you with your boat number to apply to your boat and an information pack including charts and Emergency Procedures. We'll also conduct a short safety induction briefing and equipment check before launching your boat.

Boats will be rigged and made ready for the event on shore, then launched down a slipway into the sea and taken out to moorings.

Once you have launched your boat, we suggest that you take your vehicle to Corpach (about 4 miles by road, see below for directions) and check in with your accommodation boat or set up camp. See the Programme for camping locations. Trailers can be parked up by the double lock at Corpach. We will be running Ros Crana's small minibus back from Corpach to the yacht club for the race start but some help with vehicle shuttles may be required.

The first race is planned to start at 16:00 and will be from the yacht club to the entrance of the Caledonian Canal. Briefing will be at 15.30. During the skippers briefing the crews will be ferried out to the boats.

SATURDAY EVENING

Following the race on Saturday, the fleet will enter Corpach Basin via the sea lock where we will tie up for the night. We hope to be in the basin for around 18:00 hrs.

In the evening we will have the opening ceremony with a buffet supper. This will be held at the Lochaber Rugby Club. There is a bar at the club so please do not bring your own drinks.

TIDES AND WEATHER

The tide times at Corpach (BST) are as follows:

LW – 13.26 0.9 m HW – 19.29 3.8m

We will therefore be launching at low water. The flood flows north-east up Loch Linnhe so the tide will be with us for the race.

We will advise of the local weather forecast on arrival and keep crews updated through the week.

SAFETY

General

Safety is our highest priority with this event and to try to ensure risks are managed effectively, we have developed a detailed Health & Safety Plan. This includes emergency procedures and measures necessary for the mitigation of identified risks. You will be provided with a copy of the Emergency Procedures at Registration, copies of the full Health and Safety Plan are available on request.

We ask for all participants to co-operate fully in making this a safe event and take full account of all safety information provided. Finally, we remind everyone that they take part entirely at their own risk.

Risk Summary

The main risks associated with taking part in the event that we have identified are as follows:

- Falling in locks - the locks can be turbulent and water temperature are very low. Recovery of a man-overboard can be difficult, especially in a crowded situation.
- Crushing between boats/locks/jetties – a common source of injuries. Keep limbs and bodies out of danger!
- Hypothermia & sun-stroke – prolonged sailing in cold or bright conditions can result in over-exposure to the elements. Ensure that all crew are adequately equipped and take sensible precautions.
- Prolonged immersion – water temperatures in the lochs is still very low in May/June and survival periods are short. Avoidance of immersion is a priority and suitable clothing essential.
- Delay in recovery of serious injury – crews should consider how to deal with a serious injury aboard (e.g. head injury or serious cut), bearing in mind the likely delay in recovery of a casualty.
- Difficulty of landfall (Loch Ness) – Large sections of the banks of Loch Ness are very steep and
- landfall may be impossible for several miles. This can exacerbate other difficulties in the event
- of injury to a crew-member, swamping or capsize.
- Collision with other craft – both on the canal reaches and when racing on the lochs. Be aware that there are numerous motor cruisers whose skippers may have little or no boating experience or knowledge of the 'rules of the road'.
- Alcohol/drug abuse – sadly many drowning at sea and on the canal can be attributed to alcohol or drug abuse.
- Fire on board – may not be relevant to most boats but take care if appropriate.
- Capsize and/or swamping – should be regarded as 'not an option' unless you are well drilled in capsize drill, confident of recovery and suitably equipped.
- Accidents associated with boat launching (slippery surfaces, heavy lifts, crushing, unexpected vehicle/trailer movements, etc.) – please proceed sensibly and carefully.
- Trailer/parking problem induced road traffic accident – the section of road outside LYC is busy, please take care and avoid parking on the main road.
- Weil's disease. In the UK there are very rare cases of people becoming infected following immersion in water. It is extremely unlikely in the waters of the Great Glen but it would be wise to cover any cuts with a waterproof plaster. Anyone suffering symptoms similar to flue following the event should inform their doctor that they have taken part in watersports.
- Lyme's disease. This can be contracted from ticks which live in undergrowth and can attach themselves to people. It is not uncommon to get a tick if you camp or hillwalk in the Highlands. However it is rare for a tick carry the disease and even less likely for it to transfer the disease to humans. The best guard against ticks is to wear long boots in tall grass or tuck trousers into socks. Have a good look for them when settling into the tent at night and if one is found have it removed as soon as possible using a special tick remover. These are carried on board 'Ros Crana; just ask one of the crew for help if required. Anyone suffering symptoms similar to flue following the event should inform their doctor if they have had a tick. This is then treated easily if caught at an early stage.
- Cyanobacteria. Blue-Green Algae blooms are occasionally found on the waters of the Great Glen. Participants should avoid ingesting the canal and loch waters.

We ask that all skippers and crew take note of the identified risks (and any others they foresee) and devise suitable strategies for minimising the risks during their participation in the event.

Emergency Procedures

All participants will be briefed on the emergency procedures during the registration process. Printed and laminated versions of the procedures will be issued as well as posted in the Race Office (motor cruiser 'Lochnagar') and aboard the accommodation vessels.

Communications

We will tell you about additional safety information at the scheduled briefings or at special briefings as required. A special briefing will be signalled by five or more short blasts on a fog-horn at the required location.

Participants can contact the event management team by mobile telephone on: 07721 407919 or by VHF radio on channel 69. Otherwise, please approach any member of the management team with comments or questions.

A full contact list is attached to these instructions and this includes contact numbers for the coastguard and other services.

Equipment

We strongly recommend that all vessels carry equipment as listed on Appendix B of the Sailing Instructions. Most of this list is mandatory and we reserve the right to refuse a vessel to participate in the event that this equipment is not available.

If you require any specific items of equipment they may be purchased from the Inverness chandlers Caley Marina if arranged in advance. As a member of the Great Glen Boating Club you are entitled to a 10% discount on shop or mail order sales. If you order well in advance they will quote you for the items and we will get them to Lochaber Yacht Club for you at the start of the event Please e-mail info@caleymarina.com. We will have a small selection of useful chandlery items for sale anyway but these will be available on a first come first served basis.

Please note that maps or charts suitable for navigating and racing are provided at registration as well as the Scottish Canals publication 'Skippers Guide to the Caledonian Canal'.

Crew Training

We strongly recommend that each crew member is familiar with the boat being sailed (applies to core-crew for larger boats) and that appropriate safety drills such as man-overboard recovery and capsize have been practiced.

Crews should also be familiar with the basic seamanship techniques necessary for the passage of locks, including heaving lines, securing the vessel & making fast, shipping/unshipping oars safely, etc. Efficiency avoids accidents and the wrath of lock-keepers!

For those skippers and crews that have not had the chance to practice capsize and to see how their boat handles being swamped we will be offering the opportunity at Laggan! This is an optional activity but we want as many of you as possible to take part, particularly if you haven't swamped your boat before. Please bring wetsuits if you have your own, otherwise we will organise the loan of wetsuits for the occasion from Ros Crana.

SAILING INSTRUCTIONS

Detailed sailing instructions have been provided as well as these Joining Instructions. For those not familiar with racing rules, they have been summarised in Appendix A, but the basic rules of the road will keep you right (starboard tack has priority, windward boat keeps clear and overtaking boat keeps clear. Keep to starboard on canal reaches and pass port-to port). The starting procedure for races is noted in the Sailing Instructions.

Please note the rules regarding notification of crew numbers and the safety equipment list and make sure you bring everything!

Races, sailing & rowing

Please refer to the Sailing Instructions for details of the racing.

Participants intending to enter in the Loch Ness Challenge or the Highlander Trophy should notify the organisers as soon as possible, to be confirmed at Registration. Please refer to the sailing instructions for details of these trophies.

We are still finalising the racing classes, whether to run a 'development' class 4 and whether to amend the rules for this class to allow equipment not normally accepted. This refers to the following paragraph of the Sailing Instructions:

“Boats are permitted only to use their normal cruising or working sails. Specialised racing sails, including spinnakers and other similar sails are not permitted.

Trapezes, outriggers and sliding seats are also not permitted.”

Please let us know if you would be interested in racing in a class which allows for this equipment.

Logistics

We will be moving all vehicles and trailers from Corpach to Dochgarroch on the Sunday whilst the fleet travels from Corpach to Banavie and ascends Neptune's Staircase. We then provide transport for your driver to return to Banavie in time for lunch and the afternoon rowing race. Each boat will be allocated only one place on the bus. Please let us know if this is not required so we can make the appropriate transport arrangements. If you have to drive and leave the boat in the hands of inexperienced crew we can help keep an eye on them. This is not a racing leg and many crews partner up to share a tow or swap crews to help each other. If you are single handed and entering the Highlander trophy we will try to come up with a plan to let you do this within the rules. Directions to Dochgarroch are attached.

The final shuttle to the finish point at North Kessock slipway will again be made while the fleet negotiates a staircase of locks. Drivers will take cars and trailers from Dochgarroch to North Kessock slipway (directions attached) while the fleet rally to the Muirtown flight. Drivers will be collected by our transport for the return journey to join the fleet at Muirtown.

ROS CRANA ACCOMMODATION

Our lovely twin berth en-suite cabins with hot showers aboard Ros Crana are now all fully booked. This is the way to do the event in style and where the craic is best (and you'd have access to our drying room too!). Book early for the next event and we'll add more similar accommodation as best we can to meet demand.

Joining Ros Crana

If you are booked on Ros Crana then your cabin will be ready for you any time after 1pm on Saturday in Corpach Basin.

CRUISER ACCOMMODATION

We have booked two comfortable Taransay Cruisers to supplement on-board accommodation this year. They will be moored at the top of Neptune's Staircase from late afternoon on Saturday. Participants on the Taransays will spend their last night (Friday) in a hotel close to Dochgarroch. This has been booked and is included in the fee you paid.

Ideally you can get launched at the Yacht Club and then come over to drop bags etc before being ready for the race. Bedding and towels are included and the cabins are made up ready for you.

CAMPING ARRANGEMENTS

We have arranged campsites for every stop-over and these are as close to the accommodation boats as possible. See the Programme (above) for campsite locations but details will be advised as we go along.

Toilets

Scottish Canals toilet blocks with showers are available at Corpach (Saturday), Gairloch (Sunday) Laggan (Monday) and Dochgarroch (Thursday and Friday).

At Fort Augustus (Tuesday) and Foyers (Wednesday) there are commercial serviced camp sites.

Note that campers can use the heads (toilets) on Ros Crana but NOT the showers or drying room.

These are for the use of the residents who have paid extra for such comfort & facilities, please respect this!

Transport of gear

Part of the camping fee goes to provide a van and driver for the transport of your camping equipment and luggage between each stop-over. Please ensure that you load your own equipment into the van before you set off to sail for the day. The van will be locked or attended until you arrive back off the water.

Please do not ask the accommodation boats to transport or dry your clothing or equipment.

Fires

Please do not light open camp-fires without specific permission from the event management.

Breakfast and packed lunches

These are provided from 'Ros Crana and are available to campers by prior arrangement.

Bookings for these have been organised already but if you require breakfast or lunch and you haven't booked, please let us know as soon as possible so we can buy enough supplies!

AND FINALLY . . .

Sail Caledonia is all about having fun and sharing the sport we love whilst in the spectacular scenery of the Scottish Highlands. We will have a range of participants from both the UK and abroad – each with something to bring to the event. We hope that this will be a welcoming and inclusive event, so please join in with this spirit, get to know everyone and above all enjoy yourselves.

If there is anything at any time which could be improved or which is spoiling your enjoyment, please let us know.

The event team is looking forward to seeing you all on Saturday 23rd May, we're looking forward to a fun time with lots of great sailing and the usual conviviality!

SAIL CALEDONIA MANAGEMENT TEAM

Martin Balcombe – Safety & General Manager – 07721 407 919

Martin is owner of Fingal of Caledonia and Ros Crana and has, since 1996, been running cruises with outdoor activities in the Great Glen. He was involved in all 3 Great Glen Raids and has been on the management team of all the previous Sail Caledonia events since the first one in 2003. He has lost count of how many times he might have been through the Great Glen by barge, sailboat & canoe. Martin's experience includes: Head of Sailing for Outward Bound Scotland, including directing 'Viking Wayfarer' expeditions of 28' open cutters (14 days west coast sailing with wild camping ashore!); Skipper of Lorne Leader, an 80' gaff ketch on holiday charter in the Hebrides and Manager of The Manor House activity holiday centre near Padstow, Cornwall. His RYA qualifications include Yachtmaster Instructor, Dinghy Senior Instructor, Powerboat Instructor, Sea Survival Instructor and VHF radio Instructor. He holds other outdoor qualifications from the Scottish Canoe Association and Scottish Mountain Leader Training Board. He is the author of The Outward Bound Sailing Handbook. Martin has played in and around boats since a tender age and owns Spylgarn, a 16' ketch. She now works for a living on Ros Crana but started life firing Martin's passion for open boat cruising by sail & oar in Cornwall and around the Hebrides.

John Macpherson – Race Officer - 07977 851 423

John was involved in the 2002 Great Glen Raid and his motor cruiser 'Lochnagar' has become a familiar site as the committee boat for all of the Sail Caledonia events. He describes his most embarrassing moment as being towed away from Foyers in 2005 but no Sail Caledonia would be complete without him bouncing around in 'Lochnagar' on at least one windy finish line! Lochnagar comes equipped with new engine and onboard computer for printing out those all important race results. John also takes many event photos and his excellent albums can be found from a link on our website.

Ishbel Eunson – Secretary and Data Protection.

Ishbel graduated from Edinburgh university in 2012, and is currently working in the Shetland Isles. She has regularly competed in Sail Caledonia since 2005. She is crew with her Dad on the lovely Auk and has won the Highlander Trophy more times than is healthy.

Mike Tatham – Treasurer.

Mike has been involved with the sea since leaving school making his living in the merchant navy and the oil industry, but only started sailing in 2009 when his friend built him a boat. He came on his first raid in 2011 and, despite capsizing twice (once without any sails up!) was hooked to such an extent that it has rapidly becoming an all consuming passion. He has now participated in the Clipper round the World Race and completed the full circumnavigation.

Norna Hall – Logistics – 07789 311 269

Norna started sailing in one of the first ever Mirror dinghies. Since then she has had many years of just "messaging about" in boats big and small. She joined Sail Caledonia in 2007 as Pressgang and enjoyed it so much that she can't keep away. As Pressgang she has sailed with a number of very patient and forgiving skippers in some fantastic boats.

Her most embarrassing moment was capsizing her wee traditional Cornish Cove Boat in front of several thousand spectators at the Portsoy festival.

Dave Roberts- Logistics

It wouldn't be Sail Caledonia without "Swampy" Dave at the helm of Ros Crana. Few folks are aware of all the work that he does quietly in the background, smoothing the way for the fleet as it makes its way down the canal. He is an independent skipper on the canal and when not on the barge he can be found taking tourists down the loch at stupid speeds in a fast rib, or at a more sedate pace on the Royal Scot. When the winter comes you will find him praying for snow as a member of the ski patrol at Nevis Range.
